

Heritage Preservation

The National Institute for Conservation

Renewal Form

Heritage Preservation is the national advocate for preservation of collections in public and private hands. The institutions and professionals who are Heritage Preservation members are important partners in this effort. Members are museums, libraries, archives, preservation organizations, conservators in private practice, and other organizations committed to ensuring a safe future for our nation's heritage.

As a member, you currently receive:

- Update and Heritage Hotline, electronic communications keeping you and an alternate member from your organization up to date on news in the conservation field and Heritage Preservation's work and CAPabilities, the Conservation Assessment Program newsletter, sent to you biannually;
- Inclusion on Heritage Preservation's online list of member institutions websites (with links);
- Discounts and special offers on our publications; and
- Discounted participation in our Annual Meeting.

Institutional memberships start at $150. Supporting Members give at the $151-$499 level, Sustaining Members at the $500-$999 level, and our Benefactors give $1000 and above per year. Lists of our member institutions can be found at www.heritagepreservation.org.
